

Dr. Atul N.C. Peters

MB, DNB, MNAMS, FMAS

Director – Minimal Access & Bariatric Surgery

Dr. Atul N.C. Peters joined Columbia Asia Hospitals, in April 2010, as Chief – Bariatric surgery. Prior to joining Columbia Asia, Dr. Peters was associated with Max Healthcare and was instrumental in establishing the department of surgery. He further developed Minimal Access Surgery as a sub speciality in the department of surgery and served a period of eight years with the institute, steering it to newer milestones. Prior to joining Max Healthcare, he was at Sir Ganga Ram Hospital in the dept of MA & Bariatric surgery.

Dr. Peters has a vast experience of doing advanced laparoscopic procedures. He has performed advanced laparoscopic and bariatric surgeries over more than 1000 international patients in the past 3 years.

He has also trained surgeons from other countries in basic and advanced laparoscopic and bariatric surgeries.

Education & Training:

Medical School

Christian Medical College and Hospital, Ludhiana

DNB & MAS Fellowships

Sir Ganga Ram Hospital, New Delhi

Basic Bariatric Training

Covidien Clinical Institute Shanghai, China

Advanced Bariatric Training

Bariatric & Metabolic Institute (BMI)

Cleveland Clinic Foundation

Cleveland, Ohio, USA

Memberships & Fellowships:

Association of Surgeons of India

National Academy of Medical Sciences

Asia Pacific Hernia Society

Indian Association of Gastrointestinal Endosurgeons (IAGES)

Obesity Surgery Society of India (OSSI)

Special Interests:

- Laparoscopic Bariatric Surgery (Weight loss surgery)
- Advanced Gastrointestinal Laparoscopy
- Advanced Laparoscopy Urology